

Getting Your Ducks in a Row So You are Ready to Show

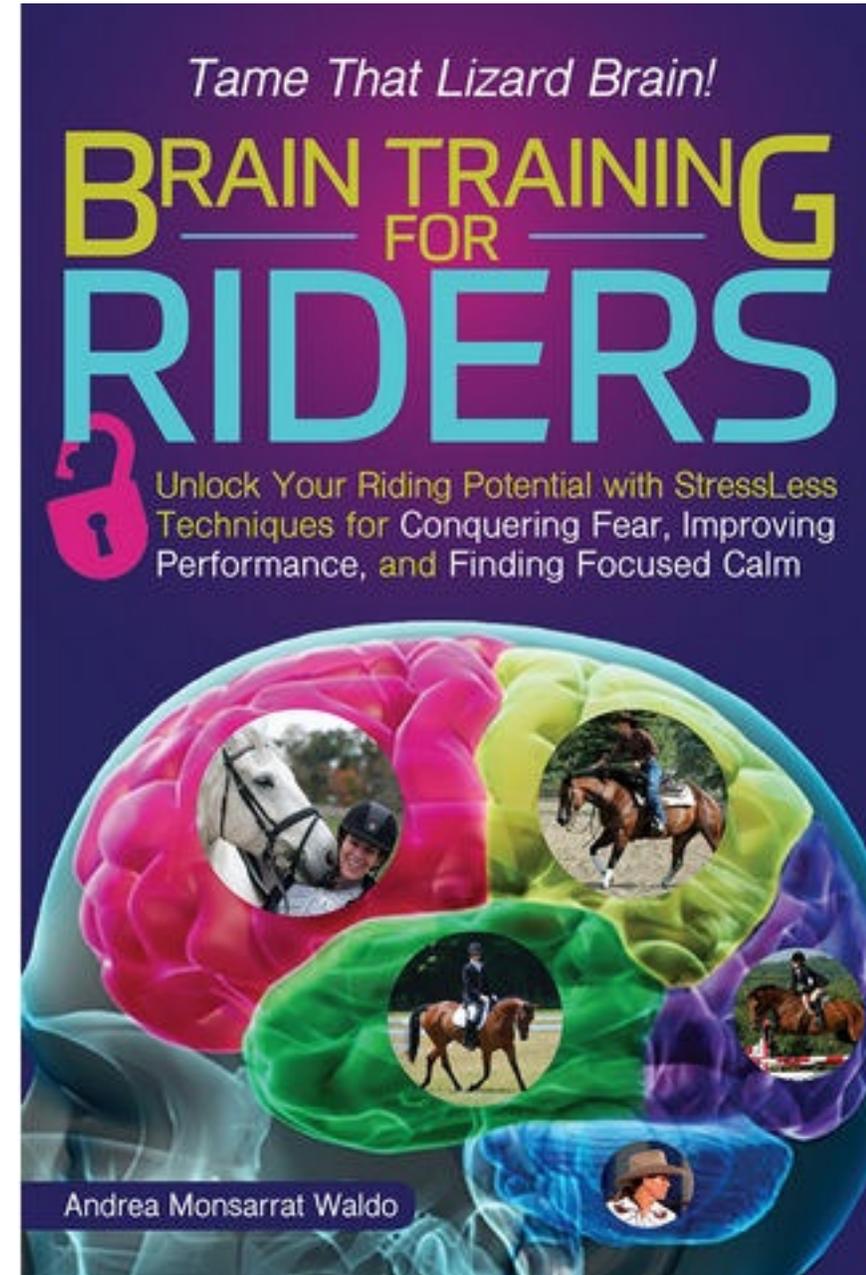

Consistent in Preparation

The so-called hard stuff isn't as hard as making ourselves go do all the little steps that, when added up, make what once was hard become easy. ~Denny Emerson

Prep of Horse and Rider

- Realistic goal, safe
- Small steps
- Lizard Brain – butterflies in formation
- Flexible timeline
- Okay to change your goals
- You win if you learned
- Don't focus on ribbons

Home Barn

- In arena
- Ride test movements
- Ride test
- Hand walk at show; rider volunteer
- Warm-up at show
- Enter show – enter test that is easy

Move up

- Local close show, low key, field trip(s) first – load, ship
- Local show, more atmosphere, no field trip
- GMO Championship
- Local Recognized Show
- Bigger local show
- Over-night
- Championship – BLM, Regionals – ideal to show at location before championship

Paperwork

- Coggins
- Flu/Rhino

- Name must match show name
- Expiration date
- Save to cell or cloud
- Upload to on-line entry site
- Carry hard copies
- Health certificate

The logo for the US Dressage Finals features a white silhouette of a rider on a horse in a dressage movement, set against a red circular background with five blue stars. To the right of the logo, the text "US Dressage Finals" is written in large red letters, with "November 11-14, 2021" in smaller white letters below it. In the top right corner, there are two logos: the USDF (United States Dressage Federation) logo and the US Four-Stream Federation logo. At the bottom, the text "Good Luck Zeke & Lauren" is written in large yellow letters.

Luck is what happens when preparation meets opportunity.
